SUN PRIVATE ITI

(Affiliated to NCVT & DGT, New Delhi)

ITI stands for Industrial Training Institute which have been set up with the aim of providing professional training to Indian students. These institutes are established under the Directorate General of Employment and Training, Ministry of Skill and Development and Entrepreneurship and Union Government. The main objective of these institutes is to develop a skilled workforce in India.

ITI allows students to gain practical experience and improve their skills. Industry Recognition: ITIs are respected by a variety of organizations and sectors, and the courses are designed to meet the requirements of the sector. ITI graduates are therefore in high demand in the employment market

In order to be successful in this modern era, the professionals require to have specialized skills and knowledge and must know how to apply them. Thinking that ITIs do not have a good career opportunity or the degree is lesser than any other degree is completely wrong. In fact, the students who have the right set of skills and training will have a better chance of employment if compared to others holding a higher degree in the future in many cases. With their skill sets they are better suited for a career after ITI.
